

Canadian Studies Center

Henry M. Jackson School of International Studies

Student Awards and Recognitions

2008-2009

4:00 PM
Tuesday
9 June 2009

Colleen Room
University Club
University of Washington

2008-09 Canadian Studies Center Student Recognition Reception University Club, University of Washington

Every year the Center celebrates the achievements of University of Washington graduate and undergraduate students who receive awards and recognitions for their studies and research on cross-border issues or Canada's role in the world.

This year we celebrate our Foreign Language and Area Studies Fellows, our Killam Fellows, graduates who have received academic appointments, students who have participated in conferences, and students who have taken leadership positions for Canadian conferences and tours. We also celebrate our Affiliated Faculty who have taken students to Canada as part of their course studies.

Please join us in congratulating the many achievements in Canadian Studies at the University of Washington!

The Fourth Annual Canadian Studies Symposium, "Reimagining Health Care: What We Can Learn from Canada," featured cross-border research by six UW graduate students from Aquatic and Fishery Sciences, Social Work, Sociology, Forest Resources, Civil and Environmental Engineering, and Oceanography. Jack Thompson, Public Health, and 2008-09 Canada-US Fulbright Visiting Chair, Michael Orsini, served as respondents (right).

Graduate Student Achievements in Canadian Studies 2008-2009

Foreign Language and Area Studies Fellows Summer 2009

Erin Maloney, Ethnomusicology,
French
Jennifer Leider, Evans School of
Public Affairs, French
Sylvia DeTar, Music, French
Barbara Bennett, Marine Affairs,
French

Academic Year 2009-2010

Rachel Feller, Law, French
Joyce LeCompte-Mastenbrook,
Anthropology, Salish
Jennifer Leider, Evans School of
Public Affairs, French
Erin Maloney, Ethnomusicology,
French
Julia Colleen Miller, Linguistics,
Dane-zaa

At the 100th Anniversary Gala for the Henry M. Jackson School of International Studies, incoming FLAS Fellows enjoyed time with the Québec Déléégation from LA, one of the Gala sponsors. From left, Head of Post, Denis Turcotte (Québec Déléégation), Rachel Feller (Law), Jennifer Leider (Evans School), Erin Maloney and Sylvia DeTar (Ethnomusicology), and Yanick Godbout (Québec Déléégation).

Academic Year 2008-09

Joyce LeCompte-Mastenbrook, Anthropology, Salish
Erin Maloney, Ethnomusicology, French
Julia Colleen Miller, Linguistics, Dane-zaa
Jonathan Santiago, Public Health and Community Medicine, French

Degrees Awarded for Cross-Border Research

Kate Dunsmore, PhD, Communication, “Communication, Mediating Alliance: The Role of the Press in Sustaining Reciprocity in the US-Canada Relationship,” Chair, Nancy Rivenburgh, December 2008.
Nathalie Hamel, PhD, Aquatic and Fishery Sciences, “Spatial ecology of common murrelets in the Pacific Northwest and implications for management,” Chair, Julia Parrish, June 2009.
Timothy Pasch, PhD, Communication, Foreign Language and Area Studies Fellow, Inuktitut, “Inuktitut Online in Nunavik: Mixed Methods Web-Based Strategies for Preserving Aboriginal and Minority Languages,” Chair, Anthony Chan, September 2008.

Appointments in Canadian Studies

Kate Dunsmore, tenure-track assistant professor position, Communication Studies, Fairleigh Dickinson, Madison, New Jersey, August 2008.

Timothy Pasch, tenure-track assistant professor position, Communication, University of North Dakota, Grand Forks, North Dakota, August 2009.

Grants/Awards/Distinctions

Shengjun Huang, Evening MBA Class of 2010, selected participant, Canadian Leadership Orientation Program, Telfer School of Management, University of Ottawa, 31 May-5 June 2009.

Morna E. McEachern, Social Work, First Runner-Up, Enders Graduate Student Fellowship, Association for Canadian Studies in the US, 2009-2010.

Morna McEachern, Social Work, selected participant, Project CONNECT, Center for the Study of Canada, SUNY Plattsburgh, Summer 2009.

Conference Chairs

Karen Capuder, Anthropology, Chair, 8th Annual Symposium of Native American Graduate Students, University of Washington, 3 April 2009.

Shengjun Huang, 2010 Shadow Leader, 2009 Canada Study Tour, Vancouver, British Columbia, 12-16 February 2009.

Morna McEachern, Social Work, "Reimagining Health Care: What We Can Learn from Canada," Fourth Annual Canadian Studies Graduate Student Symposium, School of Social Work, University of Washington, 17 April 2009.

MeharPratap Singh, Co-Chair, 2009 Canada Study Tour, Vancouver, British Columbia, 12-16 February 2009.

Kelly Voss, Co-Chair, 2009 Canada Study Tour, Vancouver, British Columbia, 12-16 February, 2009.

The Third Annual Canada Study Tour, led by Kelly Voss and MeharPratap Singh, brought 22 MBA students to Vancouver in February 2009.

Annual Canadian Studies Symposium Research Presentations

Beth Curry, Oceanography, "Freshwater Transport Through the Davis Strait between 2004-2005."

Nathalie Hamel, Aquatic and Fishery Sciences, "Bycatch and Beached Birds: Assessing Mortality Impacts in Coastal Net Fisheries Using Marine Bird Strandings in the Salish Sea."

Li Leung, Civil and Environmental Engineering, "FAST Commercial Vehicle Crossing Times between Western Canada and the United States."

Morna McEachern, Social Work, "Children of a Common Mother": Teen Pregnancy and Political Symbols in US and Canadian Sexual Health Education Guidelines."

David Pettinicchio, Sociology, "Ethnic Nationalism and Flight: Explaining Anglophone Out-Migration from Québec, 1971-1981."

Mihyun Seol, Forest Resources, "Potential Market for Canadian Forest Product Industry: Trade between Canada and China."

Scholarship Recipients for Conference Presentations ($200)

Susan Albrecht, Policy Studies and Jackson School of International Studies, paper presentation, "Building on Recent North American Freight Activities," North American Freight Flows: Understanding Changes and Improving Data Sources Conference, Irvine, California, 22-23 September 2008.

Susan Albrecht, Policy Studies and Jackson School of International Studies, paper presentation, "The Future of West Coast Ports: Canada's Gateway and Trade Corridor Initiative and Implications for US Transportation Policy," Transportation Research Forum, 50th Annual Forum, Portland, Oregon, 16-18 March 2009.

Li Leung, Civil and Environmental Engineering, paper presentation, "An Investigation of Commercial Vehicle Crossing Times at the Pacific Highway Port-of-Entry," North American Freight Flows: Understanding Changes and Improving Data Sources Conference, Irvine, California, 22-23 September 2008.

Julia Colleen Miller, Linguistics, "The phonetics of tone in two dialects of Dane-zaa (Athabaskan)," Society for the Study of the Indigenous Languages of the Americas, Annual meeting of the Linguistic Society of America, San Francisco, 8-11 January 2009.

Undergraduate Distinctions in Canadian Studies 2008-2009

Killam Foundation Fellowships

2009-2010 Killam Fellows

Rozanna Fang, Senior, French, (minor Public Health and Community Medicine), McGill University, Fall Quarter 2009.

Adam Tanga, Junior, Political Science (minor French), University of Ottawa, Fall Quarter 2009.

2008-2009 Killam Fellows

Lucas Olson, International Studies, University of Victoria, Fall Quarter 2008.

Reva Robinson, Linguistics, Queen's University, Fall Quarter 2008.

The Killam Fellows attended the 100th Anniversary Gala for the Jackson School of International Studies on 11 May 2009. From left, Rozanna Fang, French; Adam Tanga, Political Science; and incoming Killam from Canada, Kelvin Fong, University of Toronto.

Killam Fellows in Residence from Canada

2008-09

Barry Dewitt, Arts and Sciences Program and Mathematics, McMaster University, residency at UW, Spring Quarter 2009.

Kelvin Fong, Physiology and Music, University of Toronto, residency at UW, Winter and Spring Quarter 2009.

Twelfth Annual UW Undergraduate Research Symposium

"Task Force on Arctic Sovereignty and Governance," Kristen Olson, Naama Sheffer, Gustaf Andreasen, Stephen Printz, Andrew Schwartz, Alison McKay, Marta Schwendeman, Julia Troutt, and April Nishimura, International Studies; Mentors, Vincent Gallucci, Aquatic and Fishery Sciences, and Nadine Fabbi, Canadian Studies Center.

"The Viability of Shipping Through the Arctic: An Analysis of Risks and Risk Management for Shipping Lines," Naama Sheffer, International Studies, Mary Gates Scholar; Mentor, Anne Goodchild, Civil and Environmental Engineering.

"A Comparison of Environmental Stewardship and Social Responsibility in Europe and North America," Elizabeth Tran, Senior, Environmental Science Resource Management; Mentor, Dorothy Paun, Forest Resources.

UW Libraries Research Award

Gus Andreasen, Alison McKay, Kristin Olson, Stephen Printz, Andrew Schwartz, Marta Schwendeman, Naama Sheffer, Jamie Stroble, and Julia Trout, Honorable Mention for project, "Towards Arctic Resolution: Issues of Sovereignty and Governance in the Circumpolar North," Library Research Award for Undergraduates, UW Libraries.

Courses with Study-in-Canada Components

The Center would like to thank the following faculty for facilitating undergraduate study-in-Canada opportunities in 2008-09:

SOCWF 312/405 Social Work Policy Practice/Fieldwork Seminar, taught by Stan De Mello, Blake Kaiser, and Morna McEachern, field trip to Vancouver, British Columbia, 19 February 2009 (27 undergraduate students in Social Work).

URBDP 474 Site Planning Issues and Techniques, taught by Daniel Abramson, field trip to Vancouver, British Columbia, 7 March 2009 (8 undergraduate students in Urban Design and Planning).

SIS 495C Task Force on Arctic Sovereignty, taught by Nadine Fabbi and Vincent Gallucci, Fact-Finding Mission to Ottawa, 24-31 January 2009 (13 International Studies majors).

Eight students from the Task Force on Arctic Sovereignty (Winter Quarter 2009) presented their research at the Twelfth Annual UW Undergraduate Research Symposium. Their panel was chaired by Luis Fraga, Office of Minority Affairs and Diversity (left).

Consulate General of Canada / Seattle
Consulat Général du Canada / Seattle

The Canadian Studies Center would like to thank the Consulate General of Canada, Seattle, for hosting this year's Student Recognition Reception.

Canadian Studies Center

Henry M. Jackson School of International Studies
University of Washington
Box 353650
Seattle, Washington 98195-3650

canada@u.washington.edu
<http://jsis.washington.edu/canada/>